As I said before, the highest ranking official in LSP, Colonel Staton, and Captain Taylor Moss (Lt. Porter's direct supervisor) are discussing EXPLO Systems with Brig. General Keeling, the Chief of Staff for LANG, and Major General Curtis (LANG). I have no direct knowledge of any conversations above that level or with DOD directly. I've been told there is a meeting today at 12:40 between LSP and LANG officials listed above to discuss EXPLO, specifically the issue of inadequate storage for 3.7 million pounds.

I shot an email to LSP and LANG to see if there is any update. Let me know if there are any specific questions you wish for me to ask.
